

RYAN JOHNSON

Software Development
Full Stack Developer

SUMMARY

I have been creating enterprise-level software since 2016, with a focus on web and mobile app development. I have experience in software consulting, full-stack development, and student mentorship. My driving-force as a developer is to create scalable and sophisticated solutions for the ever-evolving software development industry. I'm seeking a challenging position where I can use my skills and experience to make a significant contribution.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE
